REPORT ON BLOOD DONATION CAMP

Sri Lakshmi Law College, Bengaluru, under the aegis of Dhanvantri Trust, successfully organized a Blood Donation Camp on 4th April 2026 at 10:00 AM in the Sharada Auditorium, SLGI, Sunkadakatte, Bengaluru. The programme was conducted as part of the institution's commitment to social responsibility and community welfare by the NSS Unit and Youth Red Cross Unit in association with the Indian Youth Red Cross Society. The primary objective of the camp was to promote voluntary blood donation, create awareness regarding its importance, and in still humanitarian values among students and staff while contributing to the healthcare system.

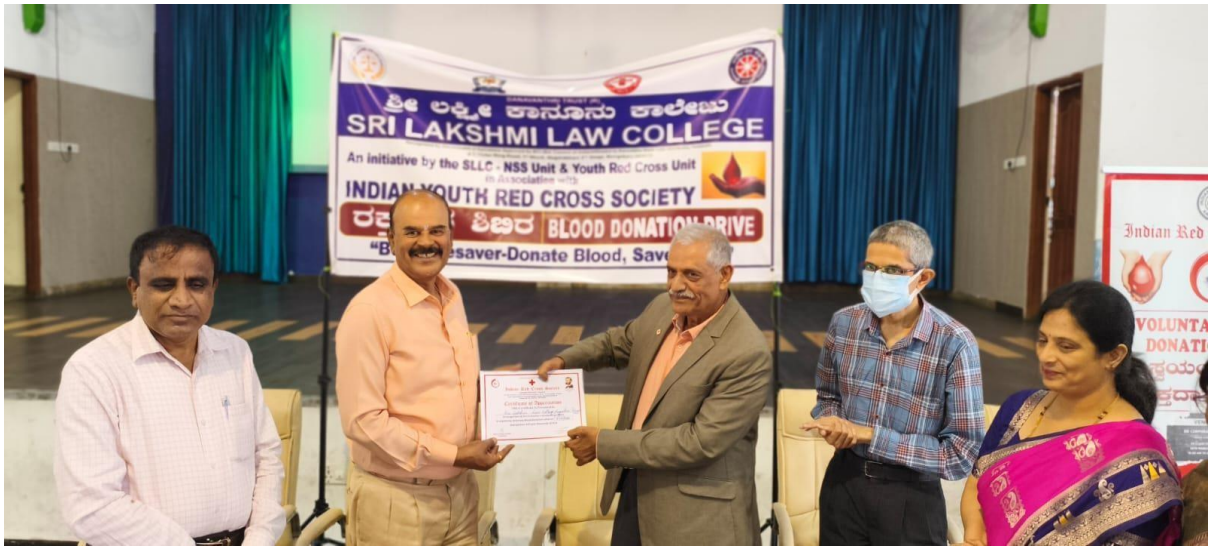

The event was inaugurated in the presence of distinguished dignitaries, including Dr. N. Ramachandraiah, Chairman, SLGI; Prof. K. Nagi Reddy, Administrative Director, SLLC; Dr. Darshan L. Gowda, Director, SLLC; Dr. Kavya M., Principal, SLLC; Shri Shivabasavaiah, CEO, SLGI; Dr. Smitha R. Chandra, Medical Director, SLMS; and Shri Basrur Rajeev Shetty, Chairman, IRCS Karnataka Branch. Their presence and encouragement significantly contributed to the success of the programme and motivated participants to actively engage in the noble cause.

The camp was efficiently organized and coordinated by the NSS Unit and Youth Red Cross Unit under the guidance of the faculty coordinator Ms. Baby. The programme witnessed enthusiastic participation from students, faculty members, and staff. All donors underwent preliminary medical screening to ensure eligibility, and the donation process was conducted under the supervision of qualified medical professionals, ensuring strict adherence to safety and hygiene protocols. Post-donation care, including refreshments and rest facilities, was provided to all donors.

The Blood Donation Camp achieved commendable outcomes, with a substantial number of participants voluntarily donating blood. The initiative not only contributed to the availability of safe blood for medical purposes but also enhanced awareness among students regarding the importance of regular blood donation. It further strengthened the institution's collaboration with social service organizations and reaffirmed its commitment to community engagement and service. The programme concluded successfully, reflecting the spirit of compassion and social responsibility upheld by Sri Lakshmi Law College.
