REPORT ON CONSTITUTION DAY

The Constitution Day Celebration held on 29 November 2025 at Sharada Sabangana, Sri Lakshmi Group of Institutions, Sunkadakatte, was a grand and meaningful academic event organized in association with Sri Lakshmi Law College and Sri Lakshmi Group of Institutions under the aegis of Dhanvantri Trust (R). The programme was conducted to commemorate the adoption of the Indian Constitution and to promote constitutional awareness among students. The event began with an invocation followed by a welcome address by the Principal, Dr. Kavya M., who highlighted the importance of understanding constitutional values for building responsible legal professionals. The highlight of the celebration was the Special Guest Lecture delivered by Prof. C. S. Patil, Director of KILPAR, who provided a detailed, enlightening, and inspiring discourse on the making of the Indian Constitution, the vision of the framers, and the relevance of constitutional principles in contemporary India. Guest of Honour Prof. K. Nagi Reddy further enriched the academic dialogue by elaborating on judicial developments, landmark judgments, and the evolving nature of constitutional interpretation. Adding depth and creativity to the event, the LL.B students of Sri Lakshmi Law College presented a visual presentation on the Making of the Indian Constitution, depicting the drafting process, the contributions of prominent leaders, and significant milestones that shaped the Constitution. Bringing a vibrant cultural element to the celebration, students of the Nursing College performed a patriotic dance, which added colour, emotion, and national spirit to the programme and was appreciated by all attendees. The event was presided over by eminent dignitaries including Dr. N. Ramachandraiah, Chairman of SLGI, Sri Shivabasavaiah, CEO of SLGI, and Dr. Darshan L. Gowda, Director of SLLC, whose presence added prestige and motivation to the gathering. Distinguished invitees from various institutions under the Sri Lakshmi Group also graced the event, enhancing its significance. Students actively participated throughout the programme, especially during the interactive session that encouraged meaningful discussions on constitutional amendments, fundamental rights, judicial activism, and citizenship responsibilities. Overall, the celebration successfully instilled constitutional values among students and inspired them to uphold the ideals of justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity. The programme concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to all dignitaries, faculty members, performers, and students for making the Constitution Day Celebration impactful and memorable.
